

BIG CHECK. BIG COVERAGE. BIG RELIEF. POWERED LOCALLY.®

David, Don and Jim Seiwert received a check for $10,168.82 from Jed Miller, CHS Lubricants District Manager, and Farmer's Co-op Grain Association in Conway Springs, Kan., for Cenex Total Protection Plan® coverage on a Buhler Versatile tractor.

While doing winter service last February on his farm equipment, David Seiwert of Seiwert Brothers in Conway Springs, Kansas, stuck his finger in the transmission oil drain hole of his Buhler Versatile 435 and found a metal flake. After a little more fishing around, he ended up with seven flakes, one about the size of a thumbnail. The tractor hadn't been making any noises or showing any symptoms of anything going wrong, but Seiwert wasn't going to wait until the tractor broke down in the fields before fixing the problem.

He took the tractor into his local Buhler Versatile dealer, who told him that the transmission needed to be overhauled, which was going to cost over $10,000. Since the tractor was almost 10 years old and had over 4,500 hours on it, the manufacturer's warranty wouldn't cover the costs.

Fortunately, Seiwert Brothers has been using Cenex® fuels and lubricants and covering their equipment with the Cenex Total Protection Plan® for as long as they can remember. The Cenex Total Protection Plan® extends beyond manufacturers' warranties by protecting new equipment for up to 10 years or 10,000 hours and used equipment for up to 8 years or 8,000 hours, with no deductible. So, when the bill was due, the Cenex Total Protection Plan® paid $10,168.82 to cover the repairs.

Over the past 20 years that they have been using Cenex® products and the Cenex Total Protection Plan®, this was the first big claim the Seiwert Brothers had to file. With the help of Pat Lies, Manager at the Farmer's Co-op Grain Association, and the simple claims process, everything was hassle-free. "Pat handled all the paperwork for us and took care of everything, and it couldn't have gone smoother," Seiwert recalled.

"We couldn't have been happier with the program. We felt lucky to have the Cenex Total Protection Plan®," Seiwert said.
